LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—C. H. Goss & Co. have just installed a big steam boiler in the north building of the Summer street schools.

—The village trustees have rented the steam roller to the town of Lisbon to be used during the month of August in macadamizing the streets of that New Hampshire town.

—The latest automobile in town is a Maxwell runabout purchased by Dr. J. E. Hartsborn of Aldrich & Burbank, the local agents. It is a gasoline machine driven by a shaft instead of a chain and is a most attractive as well as useful automobile.

—The Ladies' Circle of the Church of the Messiah, will meet with Mrs. E. L. Spencer, Main street, Thursday afternoon at 2.30. A good attendance is desired.

—The Sunday school of the First Baptist church had a fine time on their picnic Thursday and there was a large attendance. They rendezvoused at Harris Hill and after dinner games and sports were indulged in.

—Russell C. Calhoun of Batonville, Fla., was here last week in the interests of the Robert Hungerford industrial school. This school is doing similar work to Tuskegee and had last year over 100 scholars.

—The ladies of the Free Baptist church are requested to meet at O. H. Smith's, Thursday afternoon at 2.30, for a business meeting.

—Welch & Aiken are making some choice cuts on beef steak, pork steak, and all kinds of fresh meats.

—Two California trick bicyclists, Harry C. Fowler and Rube Shields, gave a splendid exhibition of their work on Railroad street last Friday night. The state press say that if Mr. Fowler covers a certain distance before next Christmas he will wed a San Francisco heiress as a reward for his daring rides.

—The International Correspondence school is holding a two weeks' exhibit of their work and courses in the vacant store just north of Don C. Stiles'.

—The plate glass windows at Moore & Jewett's store are being lowered so as to give a better chance to display their goods.

—Misses Frances Ross and Helen S. Boynton and Frank O. French have been engaged to give an entertainment in Danville Friday night for the benefit of the Village Improvement society.

—Chief of Police Noyes made an arrest for intoxication Monday night and the party pleaded guilty to a second offense and paid a fine and costs amounting to $21.11.

—The Maine Central railroad advertises another excursion to Old Orchard next Sunday and special tickets at $2.25 for the round trip will be on sale at the St. Johnsbury station. Passengers leave here on the 2.45 a. m., train, and while in Portland the excursionists will be allowed to visit Admiral Evans' squadron which will spend the week in the harbor.

—The ladies of the South church will conduct the food sale at the parish rooms of St. Andrew's church, Saturday, beginning at 3 o'clock.

—Cooked meats and the choicest of canned goods can be secured at Welch & Aiken's market.

—Any wishing to secure the same kind of Raspberry home served at the Woman's club Monday can get it of Caterer Atwood within the next ten days.

—Several ladies of the congregation of Notre Dame enjoyed a picnic last Wednesday on the campus in Paddock Village. Mrs. Frank Landry and Mrs. Antoine Grenier were instrumental in arranging the entertainment.

—Fred Hawkinson has purchased the Abel Stone place and will soon move there.

—See adv. wool carding and hand spun yarns.

—A pilgrimage will be made from here Friday, August 18, to St. Anne de Beaupre, near Quebec, which a number will join. It is under the patronage of Sherbrooke College, and will continue until the following Tuesday.

—Rickaby & Gauthier have sold their cottage on Passumpsic street to Octave Lachance. Immediate possession given.

Midsomer Night's Dream.

It will be safe to say that since the days of Wawehuk and Imquk and all other aborigines, no such performance ever got performed hereabout as came out in the Greenwood forest of Elmwood last Friday night. No tomahawks, war-whoops and scalp, but pranks and play of elf-olk and mystic swains. The forest was alive with elves and gauze-enveloped fairies, with sprites and sylphs and amazons that could dance without a waxed floor, and wave of hedgehogs and daddy-longlegs from the sleeping beauty. How a knavish sprite performed sly pranks and got a queen fairy enamored of a long-eared gentleman, fed on apricocks and dewberries, was astonishing to behold. Marry: where was ever seen such a lion, such a massive piece of masonry for a wall, such silvery moonshine to light true lovers to Ninny's tomb, and if you want to know the possibilities of high art commend yourself to an accomplished citizen of Athens, who can play Eccles rarely, and roar an 'twere a nightingale, also who bethought himself to be —no man alive can tell what. More than 200 folk will tell you that such a Midsomer Night's Dream as this is not dreamed every night: and Sunset Home will accept $100 with courtesies to the Misses Merrill for getting up so marvelous a thing.

Words of Appreciation.

The ladies, who had in charge the arrangements for the entertainment recently given at Elmwood in benefit of Sunset Home, wish to express their thanks to those who rendered such material assistance in making the evening a financial success. At least $100, will be made over to the treasurer of the Home. To Miss Merrill; and Miss Luella Merrill; to the members of the caste who gave not only their time, but furnished their costumes; to Miss Boynton and those who took part in the chorus; to Miss Winifred S. Merrill for the posters; to A. L. Bailey for the use of the piano; to the St. Johnsbury Electric Light Co., and especially to Supt. Gage and Robt. McGilvary for personal supervision; to C. A. Calderwood and to C. A. Stanley for chairs; to the Gordon and Bingham drug stores; to the Republican and CALEDONIAN; to Messrs Puffer, Forrest, Clark, Howard, Hall, Carriek, Horton, Mackinnon, Stafford and Spaulding; and last to the public, who so cordially gave their generous cooperation.

OUTDOOR SPORTS.

St. Johnsbury Ball Nine Wins a Ten inning Game.

That St. Johnsbury has a fast ball team may not be generally known, in fact a good many do not know the town has a ball team. But we have a team that makes good when it plays ball and last Saturday they went to Barton Landing and defeated the Barton Landing team in a red hot ten inning contest. Thompson was in the box for St. Johnsbury and pitched a masterly game. He was finely supported by his team, only two errors being charged to them. Head at second and Peck at first also played fast ball. For the home nine, Gildea, the ex-Fall River star, pitched a fine game, and although he was hit hard at times he pulled himself through in good shape. Tripp caught a good game and his throwing to bases was fine. St. Johnsbury was way ahead in batting, having 10 hits to her opponents' three. Racette made three hits with only four times at bat, and Thompson made two with three times at bat. The score by innings was as follows:

St. J.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Barton	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
St. J.	0	0	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	1
Barton	2	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
St. J.	10	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Barton	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Errors, St. J. 3.
Barton 1.
Struck out, by Thompson, 7, by Gildea, 8. Base on ball, Thompson 1. Batteries, Thompson and Racette; Gildea and Kipp. Umpire, Davison of Island Pond. Time, 1 hour, 50 minutes. Attendance 250.

The St. Johnsbury play Lyndonville on the campus next Saturday afternoon at 3.30. This should be a fast game and ought to be well attended. Be there and help the boys win the game.

State Tennis Tournament.

The smart shower yesterday afternoon did not prevent the tennis players working off most of the preliminary round in the state tennis tournament and the spectators at the courts of the Old Pine Golf Club saw some fast matches. It will be the best tournament ever held in Vermont and all lovers of good tennis should plan to see some of the matches. R. L. James of Saratoga, winner of last year's cup, will be here today and will defend the cup in the finals Friday afternoon. Henry Mollenhauer, winner of the cup in 1903, is at the big Longwood meet and is playing great tennis there. The players from out of town entered here are R. E. Bingham, Prof. G. E. Howes, John C. Torrey, H. C. Clark, F. S. Pease and C. P. Trask from Burlington, H. C. Bridges of North Carolina, H. O. Ayer of Washington, E. B. Cornwall, Princeton '05, Guy B. McKinney, Boston, Semp Russ and C. C. Cresson, golf state champions from San Antonio, Texas, A. F. Dempsey and Sydney Dempsey of West Fitchburg, Mass., R. B. Dresser of the Harvard law school and F. F. Spies of Brooklyn. The latter failed to make his appearance. Last evening a reception was given the players at the club house, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Following is the result of the drawings:
